

Learning Fair – Planning Organizer

At our final session in May we will be sharing our learning from the 2012-2013 year. Sharing will be informal and conversation based. Artefacts of student work, data and anecdotal evidence is encouraged but additional technology such as projectors will not be necessary.

The conversation will be based around the following prompts:

Prompt	Notes
Our collaborative inquiry was about....
It involved us... (instruction practices, data collecting, etc.)
It was prompted because...
We felt it was important because...
We believe...

We found out...
Our most valuable lesson/learning occurred when...
We still do not know...
We are still puzzled about...
We recommend...
Our next steps...
